Xbox 360 250GB + Skyrim, MW3, RAGE, Black Ops & more

For sale is an Xbox 360 S 250GB Console (Gloss) and six games purchased from Australian retailers.

- Skyrim
• Call of Duty: Modern Warfare 3
• RAGE
• Call of Duty: Black Ops
• Mortal Kombat vs. DC Universe
• Grand Theft Auto IV: The Complete Edition

The console and all games are in immaculate condition, there is not a single mark or scratch on the console, nor any of the discs, and the boxes as well as manuals are as new, in pristine condition.

The console was purchased on the 4th June 2011, MFR date is 9th March 2011, model 1439. I have the original box for the console, as well as all packaging and manuals, in as new condition.

Included are the standard accessories - the Xbox 360 Headset, Wireless Controller and Composite AV Cable. All of which have been infrequently and lightly used, apart from the composite cable, which has not been opened. The controller has no signs of use, and as such the joysticks are not worn or loose, nor are the triggers or any other buttons. Also included is an Apple HDMI Cable, which has again been lightly used, and is as new.

I have the receipts from the purchase of the console, Skyrim, Modern Warfare 3 and the HDMI cable. Reason for sale is because I'm moving back to PC gaming.

Hi, would you consider selling console separate?

If you do sell separately, what would you be looking for (price wise) for Skyrim?

I'd only start selling the games once the console has been sold. $50 for Skyrim, plus postage.

Of course 😊

$50 for Skyrim, plus postage.

I'll stick my hand up for Skyrim if it does get split up.
